

Main Reading: Philippians 2:1-11

Paul makes his biggest theological claim in the entire letter. [theology: Theo = God, ology = belief about]

Sometimes, people get angry, bored, or uninterested when the word (theology) comes up.

But, that shouldn't be the case. Because everyone—every single person you meet—is a theologian.

Everyone has a belief about God...But, as Christians, we get our theology from the Bible.

In the Bible, God tells us exactly who He is and exactly what He requires.

Any belief about God that doesn't come from the Bible is man-made.

See, in life, you have to make a decision:

You can either let man define God by his experiences, ideas, and guesses, or...

You can let God define Himself in His Word. Jeremiah 17:5-8

Anyways, this passage, puts a big focus on the Trinity and fits well with Christmas time.

2) There is an increasing amount of people who do not understand these Bible verses.

Famous "pastors" have twisted Philippians 2 in a way that isn't even close to Christianity...

[false teaching is a HUGE topic in the Bible!— 26 out of the 27 books in the NT]

[Explain how false teaching can be used to teach the truth. Jesus did this technique]

[Explain Hermeneutics (so we know that we are interpreting things correctly)]

2 rules: #1 Context, context, context. [911 sheet]

#2 Clear verses interpret unclear ones.

[v. 1-2]

Paul starts this section off with "if...if...if...if"

Sometimes when we use the word "if" we are not sure about something.

"If I make to Bible Study...If I have a good day today"...these are scenarios that are up in the air.

But as Paul uses if statements, he is sure about something, and he's using if to mean since.

Because the truth is: There is a ton of encouragement in Christ.

an abundance of comfort from brotherly love.
plenty of fellowship with the Spirit.
a great deal of compassion and sympathy.

God provides each Christian with all of these things. And I want to look at 2 of them deeper...

1. Encouragement in Christ

This Greek word for encouragement means "to come near and help"

Friends, that's exactly what Jesus did 2000 years ago. [Christmas]

He came down from Heaven to be near us and provide the best help.

But His encouragement doesn't stop there...

While Jesus was here, He spoke words of encouragement to His believers. Matthew 6:31-34

And Jesus sent other men out to write encouraging letters to us. Example—Romans 5:1

But there's even more... 2. Fellowship With the Spirit

We were not around when Jesus walked the earth, but we have the Spirit of Christ working in us.

Again, God is drawing near to help us. How much closer can you get than inside?

And I want to explain what it is that makes this partnership so amazing.

It's the fact that the Holy Spirit is a person.

The Holy Spirit is God—not a force or a gas—but just as much God as the Father and the Son.

See, you can't have true fellowship with something—only with someone.

And the Bible goes out of its way to teach that the Holy Spirit is a person.

The word for Spirit is "pneuma" (also translated as wind)—which is an "it" word.

We would say: "when the strong wind blew through the town, it did a lot of damage."

But Scripture gives the Holy Spirit, male pronouns; using bad grammar just to prove a point.

Plus, in the Bible, the Spirit helps, guides, and makes commands. [attributes]

And we are told not to grieve the Holy Spirit or sin against Him. [Ananias + Sapphira]

Bottom line: The Spirit is a divine person, who we can have fellowship with...But how?

First, you should know that the entire Christian life is impossible without the Holy Spirit.

In Galatians 5 and 6 alone, we are told to "walk by the Spirit," be "led by the Spirit," bear "the fruit of the Spirit," and "live by the Spirit."

Jude and Ephesians tell us to "pray in harmony with the Spirit."

And we are told to "sow to the Spirit." (Putting effort towards godly things)

But this partnership isn't totally dependent on us. Because God is doing a lot of the work too...

The Holy Spirit is the one who actually brings us into God's family.

He convicts us of sin, helps us live a lifestyle pleasing to God, and comforts us along the way.

But there are 4 things that the Spirit does for us that I want to focus on.

- He gives us a new spiritual life. John 6:63-64
- He helps us understand the Bible. Ephesians 1:16-18
- He provides us with a clear conscience. Hebrews 9:14
- And when we don't know how to pray in a situation, the Spirit helps us and intercedes (prays on our behalf) with prayers that are too deep for words. Romans 8:26-27 [explain]

So, there is a real system of teamwork between every Christian and God.

And if it wasn't for this fellowship, you could not survive your Christian life.

[v. 3-5]

God's will—and Paul's hope—is for Christians to work together and have genuine fellowship.

And there's 3 things that need to happen before we can have true fellowship:

1. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit.

Don't be self-centered or think more highly of yourself than you should.

2. Count others as more important than yourself.

Count—the Greek word is calculate—it's a math term.

The amount that we love and take care of ourselves should not add up to more than how much we love and take care of others.

3. Put the needs of others before your own.

Now, sometimes it can be very hard to put ourselves aside for the sake of unity and fellowship.

But look to the example of Jesus—God Himself.

He is the one person who deserves honor and glory, but He came to earth in the most humble way imaginable to live among us.

QUESTION: What's one way that you can consider others more than yourself in a church context?

[v. 6-8] [Hymn in the Early Church]

Here's where people start to twist things...Several teachers today will say:

"Jesus emptied Himself means that He quit being God."

This idea runs into 2 huge problems: 1) Hebrews 13:8 2) Acts 20:28 | When did God bleed?

Bill Johnson (Bethel Music) says that "Jesus was just a normal Christian"

A "televangelist," named Kenneth Copeland, claims that Jesus came to Him and said:

"I never claimed to be God. I'm a man just like you."

Now, hopefully, you're thinking: "why on earth would someone try to demote Jesus like that?!"

And I also want to make it clear that we cannot have unity or fellowship with that idea...

Jesus says in John 17 that Christian fellowship must be built on the Truth...

But here's why people teach things that are so obviously wrong.

It goes back to the very first temptation... Genesis 3:5 People want to be like God.

But these false teachers also know that people will never make it to God's level.

So, instead of elevating people to His level, they try to bring Jesus down to ours...

Once these false teachers have convinced people that Jesus is on their level, they sell curriculums about how to walk on water, control the weather, and phase through walls.

Friends, these people saying that Jesus was “just a man” is the biggest lie you will ever hear.

Jesus never came close to sinning, but you and I can’t make it an hour without sinning.

And even the good things that a human being can do are still stained by sin.

Apart from Jesus, we can do nothing—we have no power within ourselves.

But Jesus has all authority on Heaven & Earth.

So, if Jesus was your equal, then you’d have no Savior.

That being said...Jesus did empty Himself....But the question is: “of what?”...Let’s break it all down.

Jesus Christ is in the “form” of God—the Greek word there means “nature.”

Jesus and God the Father have the same nature and attributes. Hebrews 1:3

Jesus was God. He is God. And He always will be God.

But He didn’t view His God status as something to be grasped or achieved.

To Jesus, being God isn’t something to achieve because He already was God.

You don’t have to pick up something that is already in your hand.

On the other hand, to Lucifer, being God was something desirable..

that would have been a big promotion for him.

And, to Jesus, being God wasn’t something that He had to cling to and be careful not to lose.

He didn’t say “I’m God and there’s no way I’m coming to earth to be with you sinners!”

Instead, He willingly came here and took on a normal human body.

He wasn’t attractive...He didn’t glow or have a halo. He looked like everyone else. Isaiah 53:2

Jesus went from the highest position in the universe to the lowest: a baby.

He cried like every other baby, and He had to learn like every other child, and He got hungry, He felt pain and sadness, and eventually He gave up His life; killed by the very people He created.

To summarize: “Jesus emptied himself” is a phrase that really echoes Jesus’ humility.

He gave up His glory & honor, His privileges & rights, and even some of His knowledge [explain].
But the biggest thing He gave up was His "face-to-face" relationship with God the Father. [John 17]

On earth, Jesus always operated on the Father's timeline and submitted the Father's plan—even the part about dying on a cross...

But you must remember that Jesus never became less than God—that is His nature.

[v. 9-11]

Here, we see Jesus being rewarded for His humility.

God the Father gives Jesus the highest position.

Think about it: Most of the ways that we understand God, we get through knowing Jesus.

Jesus is who we think of when God comes to mind.

When we finish praying, we say: "in Jesus' name, Amen!"

According to the Bible, The role of the Holy Spirit is to point us to Jesus.

So, why does Jesus—the Son—get all of the attention?

Because God always lifts up people who are humble, and He humbles those with pride.

Since Jesus displayed the most humility possible, He is given His glory back—and then some!

This verse perfectly describes what is going on here: Psalm 110:1

Right now, there are a lot of people who refuse to say "Jesus is Lord"

But one day, that will not be the case...

And so, if you have not made that confession, I want you to know that it is much better for you to say "Jesus is Lord" now, and keep saying it forever...

than to deny him now and have to say it later.

QUESTION: Which truth about Jesus from tonight's reading motivates you to worship Him the most?
